

Hawaiian Wedding Song

Elvis Presley with The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra

Youtube channel Diego Calado

Edited 08-13-23

*There are multiple versions of this song that are not quite the same.

*On youtube the version with the royal philharmonic orchestra matches this music.

*Do a youtube search for the song title + diego calado

*Tune to 427hz

VERSE 1

Ko aloha makamae e ipo

A single | A single |
This is the moment (something in hawaiian)

D single | A single | D single A single
I've waited for— (something in hawaiian)

| A single | A single
I can hear my heart singing— (something in hawaiian)

| B7 single | E four_downstrokes
Soon bells will be ringing (Ring, ring, ring)

VERSE 2

A | B7 |
This is the moment

E7 | A |
...Of sweet Aloha

A | Bm E7 |
I will love you longer than forever (something in hawaiian)

E7 | A |
Promise me that you will leave me never

VERSE 3

A F#7 | B7 |
Here and now dear

E7
All my love

| A |
I vow dear

A | Bm E |
Promise me that you will leave me never (something in hawaiian)

E7 | A |
I will love you longer than forever (something in hawaiian)

VERSE 4

A F#7 | B7 |

Ua sila

E7 | A |

Pa'a 'ia me 'oe

A | Bm E7 |

Ko aloha makamae e ipo—

E7 | A |

Ka'u ia e lei a'e nei la

VERSE 5

A7 | D |
Now that we are one (something in hawaiian)

B7 | E7 |
Clouds won't hide the sun (something in hawaiian)

A | B7 |
Blue skies of Hawaii smile

Bm7 E7 | A |
On this, our wedding day

A | C#m | B7 E7 | E A |
I do love you with all m—y heart

A
(something in hawaiian)

*A 1926 love song written by Charles E. King for his operetta, Prince of Hawaii. It was originally entitled "Ke Kali Nei Au" ("Waiting Here for You"). In 1958, Al Hoffman and Dick Manning translated the original Hawaiian words into English, christening the song as the "Hawaiian Wedding Song."

