Verse 1 (stick with tabs?)

<sup>G</sup> The air was more than human <sup>D</sup>
And the <sup>G</sup> heat was more than hungry <sup>D</sup>
And the <sup>G</sup> cars were square and spitting diesel fumes <sup>Em Em</sup>

<sup>G</sup>
Because they're <sup>G</sup> big and mean and sacred <sup>Em Em</sup>
And the children were playing cricket with no- shoes

Pre Chorus (switch to chords)

<sup>B7</sup> the next morning we woke up, man, to a <sup>B7</sup> seven hour drive
<sup>C7</sup> well there we were stuck in port blaire where <sup>C</sup> boats break and children stare

Chorus

<sup>G</sup> and there were so many fewer questions <sup>D</sup>
<sup>Em Bm C Bm Am7</sup> when stars were still just the holes to heaven mm mmm—
<sup>G</sup> and there were so many fewer questions <sup>D</sup>
<sup>Em Bm C Bm</sup> when stars were still just the holes to heaven—
<sup>Am7</sup> mmmm mmm

Verse 2:

G D
 Disembarking from the port
 | G D |
 With no mistakes of any sort
 G D | Em Em |
 Moving soundly, engine running smooth-

G
 Officials were quite friendly
 | G
 once we drown- them with our sweet talk
 | G D | Em | Em |
 and we bribe- them with our cigarettes and booze

Pre Chorus

B7 | B7
 the next morning we woke up, man, to a seven hour drive
 C7 | C
 well there we were stuck in port blaire where boats break and children stare

Chorus

G D
 and there were so many fewer questions
 | Em Bm | C Bm | Am7 |
 when stars were still just the holes to heaven mm mmm—
 G D
 and there were so many fewer questions
 | Em Bm | C Bm |
 when stars were still just the holes to heaven—
 Am7 |
 mmmm mmm
