VERSE 1

Am7 | D | G Am7 | G |
It was like yesterday when I held your hand unthe city lights. Dancing the night
Am7 | D | C | G Am7 | G |
away as I gently stared in your beating eyes. Thinking, could this be
C | D | G D | Em single |
real? That I've found my perfect melody to my song, that's when we Am7 Am | Am7 Am | C | C single | kissed—OOhh, And then I asked you—

CHORUS

C | D | G Am7 | G |
Have you ever sat and wondered why the birdies sing? Or how the
C | D | G Am7 | G |
sun leaves our horizon and comes back again? I can
C | D | G D | Em single |
see how we don't have that picture perfect kind of love, But I know one Am7 | D | C single G single | Gm single | thing, I'm in love with my best friend— and that's perfect to G | C | C G | Gm single |
me, ooh, oh-oh, yeah

VERSE 2

| Am7 | D | G Am7 | G |
We were never apart, every breath you took was apart of mine. We could sit and do

Am7 | D | G | Am7 | G |
 nothing, And no doubt, we'd the track of time. You said that you needed
 C | D | G | D | Em single |
 me, but I know I needed you more. That's when I Am7 | Am | Am7 | Am | D | D single | held you, — huh, and asked you

CHORUS

C | D | G | Am7 | G |
 Have you ever sat and wondered why the birdies sing? Or how the
 C | D | G | Am7 | G |
 sun leaves our horizon and comes back again? I can
 C | D | G | D | Em single |
