

Posters

Jack Johnson

*This is not all correct.

end of B in intro
slide is easier

```
A |--4-7-4-2-----|
E |-----4-7-4-2-|
C |-----|
G |-----|
```

2nd beat of first and third E in intro

```
A |-----|
E |-----4-7-4-2-|
C |-----|
G |-----|
```

Intro:

```
A          |      B   finger1 |
E finger2 B |      C#m B      |      or instead of B - C# C B Bb slide_down_neck
E finger2 B |      C#m G A    |
E finger2 B |      C#m B      |      or instead of B - C# C B Bb
E finger2 B |      C#m G A    |
```

Verse 1

```
E                                     B
Looking at himself but wishing he was someone else
          | C#m                                     B
Because posters on the wall, they don't look like him at
| E | C#m B      | E                                     B
all.           so he-ties it up, he tucks it in, he pulls it back and gives a grin,
C#m                                     B          | E | C#m B
Laughing at himself because he knows he ain't loved at all-
```

```
          | A
He gets his courage from the can; it makes him feel like a man,
          | Bm                                     B          | E |
because he's loving all the ladies but the ladies don't love him at all
C#m E          | A
'cause when he's not drunk he's only stuck on himself,
          Bm                                     B          | E | C#m E | E | C#m B
And then he has the nerve to say he needs a decent girl-----
```

Verse 2

E B
Looking at herself, but wishing she was someone else
| C#m B
Because the body of the doll, it don't look like hers at
| E | C#m B | E B
all. so she straps it on, she sucks it in, she throws it up and gives a grin,
C#m B | E | C#m B |
Laughing at herself because she knows she ain't that at all
A
All caught up in the trends, Well the truth began to bend
| B7 | E | C#m E |
And the next thing you know man, There just ain't no truth left at all-
A
'Cause when the pretty girl walks, She walks so proud
| B7 B | E
And when the pretty girl laughs, Oh man, she laughs so loud
| C#m E

Verse 3

| E D |
And if it ain't this, then it's that. As a matter of fact,
C#m B |
She hasn't had a day to relax
E D |
Since she has lost her
C#m | B | E | C#m B | E B | C#m G A
Ability to think-clear-ly.

Verse 4

| E B |
Well I'm an energetic hypothetic version of another person
C#m E | E | C#m E |
Check out my outsides; there ain't nothing in here.
| E B |
Well, I'm a superficial, systematic, music television addict.
C#m E | A
Check out my outsides; there ain't nothing in here

|
Here comes another one, just like the other one
Bm7 B
Looking at himself but wishing he was someone else
| E |
Because the posters on the wall they don't look like a him
C#m E |
And so he ties it up he tucks it in, he pulls it back and gives a grin
E | C#m |
Laughing at himself because he knows he ain't loved at all
E | E
He knows he ain't loved at all

A

Bm

B

B7

E

D

C#m

Bm7

C#

C

C

Bb

Bb

G

G