VERSE 1
```
     | A                    D       |
It's  beginning to look a lot like
A            | C#7                | D  F#
Christmas,  everywhere you  go
          | Bm                   E   |
Take a  look in the five-and-ten,
Bm                  E           |
Glistening once again, with
Bm                  B              | Bm  E
Candy canes and silver lanes a  glow

```
        | A                    D       |
It's be  ginning to look a lot like
A            | C#7           | D     F#
Christmas,  toys in every  store
          | Bm
But the  prettiest sight to see,
        | A                F#
is the  holly that will be,
          | Bm  E     | A
on your  own front  door

CHORUS
            | C#7
A pair of  hop along boots and a
                              | F# \
Pistol that shoots Is the       wish of
C#7          F#m |
Barney and Ben
E                              B
Dolls that will talk and will go for a walk
        | E \          B \              E \\    |
Is the      hope of    Janice and    Jen
      E
And Mom and Dad can
                    | B \           Bm \       E
Hardly wait for      school to       start again
```

```
        | A                    D       |
It's be  ginning to look a lot like
A            | C#7                | D  F#
Christmas,  everywhere you  go
            | Bm                   E   |
There's a  tree in the Grand Hotel,
Bm                  E
one in the park as well,
     | Bm
the  sturdy kind that
B                  | Bm   E
doesn't mind the  snow

```
        | A                    D       |
It's be  ginning to look a lot like
A            | C#7                | D     F#
Christmas,  soon the bells will  start
          | Bm
And the  thing that will make them ring,
        | A                F#
is the  carol that you sing,
          | Bm E     | A
right with  in    your  heart

            | C#7
A pair of  hop along boots and a
                              | F# \
Pistol that shoots Is the       wish of
C#7          F#m |
Barney and Ben
E                              B
Dolls that will talk and will go for a walk
        | E \          B \              E \\    |
Is the      hope of    Janice and    Jen
      E
And Mom and Dad can
                    | B \           Bm \       E
Hardly wait for      school to       start again
```

        | A                    D       |
It's be  ginning to look a lot like
A            | C#7           | D     F#
Christmas,  toys in every  store
          | Bm
But the  prettiest sight to see,
        | A                F#
is the  holly that will be,
          | Bm  E     | C#7
on your  own front  door
        | Bm          | E     | A
For it's  Christmas  once  more!
