VERSE 1 (D DUD DUD DUD DU?)
G
You come home late and
| C |
you come home early.
D
You come on big
| G |
when you're feeling small.
G
You come home straight and
| C |
you come home curly.
D
Sometimes you don't
| G |
come home at all

CHORUS
G
So what in the world's,
| C |
come over you.
D
And what in heaven's name
| G |
have I done.
G You've broken the speed of
| C |
the sound of loneliness.
D
You're out there running
| G |
just to be on the run

VERSE 2
G
Well I got a heart
| C |
that burns with a fever.
D
And I got a worried
| G |
and a jealous mind.
G
How can a love
| C |
that'll last forever.
D | G |
Get left so far behind

CHORUS
G
So what in the world's,
| C |
come over you.
D
And what in heaven's name
| G |
have I done.
G You've broken the speed of
| C |
the sound of loneliness.
D
You're out there running
| G |
just to be on the run

G | C | D | G | G | C | D | G |

VERSE 3
G
It's a mighty mean and
| C |
a dreadful so rrow.
D
It's crossed
| G |
the evil line today.
G
Well, how can you ask
| C |
about tomor row.
D
We ain't got one
| G |
word to say.

CHORUS
G
So what in the world's,
| C |
come over you.
D
And what in heaven's name
| G |
have I done.
G You've broken the speed of
| C |
the sound of loneliness.
D
You're out there running
| G |
just to be on the run

D
You're out there running
| G |
just to be on the run.
D
You're out there running
| G slowing |
just to be on the run.
