Verse 1

G | G
The light was leaving and the west it was blue
| C | C | G
The children's laughter saying they're skipping just like the
| G | C | C | C |
stones they threw. The voices echoed across the waves,
C | D | D
it's getting late

Chorus

| G | F | C | D
It was just another night with the sun set and
| G | F | C
The moon rise not so far behind
| D
To give us just enough light
| G | F | C
To lay down underneath the stars listening to
| D | G | F | C | D
Papa's translations of the stories across the sky, we drew our own constellations

Interlude (Pick 4,4,3,1&2,4)

G	G	C	C
C	C	C	C

Verse 2

| G | G
The west winds often last too long
| C | C | G
But when they come down nothing ever feels the same
| G | C | C | G
Sheltered under the Kamani tree waiting for the passing rain
| G
Clouds keep moving to uncover the sea
| C | C | G
Stars above us chasing the day a way

| G
To find the stories that we sometimes need
| C | C | C |
Listen close e nough all else fades
C | D | D |
Fades a way

Chorus
| G | F | C | D
It was just another night with the sun set and
| G | F | C
The moon rise not so far behind
| D
To give us just enough light
| G | F | C
To lay down underneath the stars listening to
| D | G | F | C | D
Papa's translations of the stories across the sky, we drew our own constellations

Outro (Strum chord once and then 3,2,1,2,3)
| G | F | C | D |
| G | F | C | D |
