Verse 1 (stick with tabs?)

G D
The air was more than human
| G D
And the heat was more than hungry
| G D | Em | Em |
And the cars were square and spitting diesel fumes

G
The bulls were running wild
| G
Because they're big and mean and sacred
| G | Em | Em |
And the children were playing cricket with no shoes

Pre Chorus (switch to chords)

B7 | B7
the next morning we woke up, man, to a seven hour drive
C7 | C
well there we were stuck in port blaire where boats break and children stare

Chorus

G D
and there were so many fewer questions
| Em Bm | C Bm | Am7 |
when stars were still just the holes to heaven mm mmm
G D
and there were so many fewer questions
| Em Bm | C Bm |
when stars were still just the holes to heaven
Am7 |
mmmm mmm

Verse 2:

G D Disembarking from the port
| G D |
With no mistakes of any sort
G D | Em Em |
Moving soundly, engine running smooth

G
Officials were quite friendly
| G
once we drown them with our sweet talk

                  | G                D                        | Em  | Em  |
and we bribe   them with our cigarettes and booze

Pre Chorus

B7                                                  | B7
the next morning we woke up, man, to a   seven hour drive
C7                                                    | C
