VERSE 1

When the night comes,
When you're all alone.
When there's trouble
Em stirring in your soul.
And if your world is fall-ing a-part. Just hold on for the Morning break to dawn—

CHORUS

Come and lay your burdens
D—own. To the Place where freedom is
F—ound—
At the feet, at the feet of
Jesus, Come and lay your burdens
D—own

VERSE 2

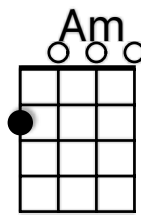

...When the deepest sorrow
Weighs on your heart, when you've Prayed for answers but the answers never come
For very tear that you cry. There's a promise
He will make your burdens light—

CHORUS

Come and lay your burdens
D—own. To the Place where freedom is
F—ound—
At the feet, at the feet of
Jesus, Come and lay your burdens
D—own

POST-CHORUS

Oh, lay them down, ooh--ooh—
 ..Oh, lay them down, ooh--ooh—
 Am | D

VERSE 3

When we see Him face
 To face. All our worries
 Will surely fade a—way
 In the presence of His glorious light, We'll sing hallelu-jah to the One Who gave us life!

CHORUS (2x)

Come and lay your burdens
 D—own. To the Place where freedom is
 F—ound—
 At the feet, at the feet of
 Jesus, Come and lay your burdens
 D—own

Come and lay your burdens down
